BANK OF SCOTLAND FOUNDATION

Bank of Scotland Foundation, has announced the launch of its new five-year strategy - "Building a Brighter Future for Scotland." The strategy aims to fund, support and champion small and local charities that work towards improving the quality of life for some of Scotland's most vulnerable people.

The first multi-year programme under the new strategy, Empower, will launch in early February, offering real security and certainty for charities. This programme will offer a three-year unrestricted grant of £150,000 (£50,000 per annum) and collaborating with Lloyds Banking Group, the Foundation also aims to identify opportunities to add strategic value for funded charities and help them grow stronger and thrive beyond the lifetime of their grant.

Two further multi-year programmes will be launched later in the year. Energise is a multi-year grants programme supporting small and local charities that are closest to the real issues facing our communities. Available to new (and more established) charities this programme offers a two-year unrestricted grant of £20,000 (£10,000 per annum), enabling charities to use their grants in the way that helps them best.

The third programme, Enable, is an innovative, joint grants programme with the Foundation's sole funder, Lloyds Banking Group, aimed at boosting community volunteering. Funding will be provided to charities to support projects delivered through volunteers, with Lloyds Banking Group's colleagues across Scotland volunteering their time and skills to help deliver the projects and support the charities. This programme offers a grant of £30,000 - £90,000 over three years (£10k-£30k per annum) for volunteering projects/costs/initiatives.

BENEFACT TRUST		Funding is now available under the following grants programmes:

		Community Impact Grants A programme of funding aimed at supporting projects that directly address the social challenges faced by some of the most vulnerable communities in our society. Building Improvement Grants For the essential repair and improvement of churches and Christian buildings. Heritage Skills for Christian Buildings Grants Focused on the preservation of essential heritage skills and careers through apprenticeships, scholarships, and training courses. Methodist Grants For building projects that support Methodist churches in their mission and ministry, with a particular focus on church growth, community engagement and accessibility. Roof Alarm Grants To protect churches from metal theft.
BUSINESS CHARGEPOINT FUNDING		To support the use of electric vehicles across Scotland, Transport Scotland offers grant funding to help organisations install electric vehicle (EV) charging infrastructure on their premises. The funding is distributed by Energy Saving Trust and is currently available for chargepoints that will only be used by occupiers, staff and visitors.
BUSINESS ENERGY SCOTLAND: SME LOAN SCHEME		Cashback grants of £20,000 and interest free loans up to £100,000 are available to charities, community organisations and social enterprises to install energy efficient systems, equipment or to upgrade building fabric such as energy efficient lighting. Free assessments are available.
CASH FOR KIDS - COST OF LIVING GRANTS		Cash for Kids is supporting children and young people through the cost-of-living crisis, with £1.6 million available to support 32,200 children across the UK. In response to the crisis hitting so many families right now we've launched this new fund, to provide emergency essentials that support the physical and mental well-being of children who are struggling. These could include food, clothing and household energy costs, but we'll also consider anything that helps meet children's most basic needs. Grants are £50 per child per household, and we aim to get the funds to families as soon as possible.

CHANGES TO THE ROBERTSON TRUST FUNDING		Later this year, The Robertson Trust will be making changes to the structure of their funding programmes. As a result, they will be closing to new applications from 12 noon on 31 May 2024 and will reopen with updated criteria in September 2024. Changes include increased levels of potential funding through Wee Grants and Small Grants, as well as changes to the income thresholds across all programmes.
CHANGEX - THE ACCENTURE SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITY CHALLENGE		The fund supports communities to start one of six proven ideas! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Open Orchard</li> <li>• Fresh Water Watch</li> <li>• Climate Action Toolkits in secondary schools</li> <li>• The Green Plan</li> <li>• Community Fridge</li> <li>• Repair Cafe</li> </ul> If your community has been considering a project which relates to those mentioned above, this could be your chance to secure some funds towards it.
CHARLES HAYWARD FOUNDATION - OLDER PEOPLE - SMALL GRANTS	n/a	Funds preventative and early intervention programmes being delivered at the community level which allow older people to stay in their own homes and remain independent. COMMUNITY RIGHT TO BUY FUND		The Community Right to Buy Fund provides financial support for community organisations in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. The fund helps communities pay for professional services to help them register an interest in land or buildings under the Community Right to Buy legislation. These services could include legal title searches or help with mapping. Funding of up to £5,000 is available, to cover up to 80% of the eligible cost. Communities must be prepared to cover the rest of the cost from other sources. This support is unlikely to involve state subsidy, but this will be assessed on a case by case basis.
CORRA FOUNDATION LOCAL SUPPORT FUND - NATIONAL DRUGS MISSION FUNDS	Ongoing until funds are spent	The Local Support Fund (LSF) is for grassroots and community-based organisations in Scotland, which deliver frontline services to support people who use or used drugs, people who are in recovery and/or their families.  To apply for this fund, you should meet the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You should have previously received funding through the Local Support Fund for one or two years.</li> <li>• You should currently be delivering frontline services in Scotland, to support people who use drugs, people in recovery and/or their families.</li> <li>• You will require funding to stabilise or increase capacity, extend services and provide further reach into the community.</li> <li>• Your organisation should have an annual income of up to £500,000.</li> <li>• You must be a registered charity, social enterprise, community group or other voluntary organisation that have independent governance and an asset lock.</li> </ul> Corra Foundation encourages applications from organisations supporting Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic communities, and other under represented groups, to increase access to support.  To apply, email the grants team for a chat about your project or call us on 0131 444 4020.
CORRA FOUNDATION – BOOST FUND	Opens 30 April 2024	On 30th April, the Boost Fund will open to applications from community groups supporting children and families affected by poverty in Scotland. Grants of up to £3000 are available to constituted groups and charities with an annual income of less than £50,000. This year, it's also open to unconstituted groups who can apply for a grant of between £250-£1500.

		Boost is designed to work for communities with a short application form, quick turnaround time on decision, and light touch reporting for grant holders.
CORRA FOUNDATION - BOOST SMALL GRANTS	No closing date	Boost small grants programme is for organisations supporting children and families in their local communities. It has been created to help groups that find the increases in basic running costs (for example utilities, salaries, transport) are making their work much more challenging. Boost will provide grants of £500-£3,000 to grassroots organisations and charities with a yearly income of up to £50,000 whose work benefits children and families. This fund aims to ensure accessible, supportive community-led activities remain available to children and families despite the challenges the cost of living poses for charities and community groups. Boost is delivered by Corra Foundation and is a partnership between the STV Children’s Appeal and Corra Foundation.
CORRA FOUNDATION – NEW INDEPENDENT HUMAN RIGHTS FUND FOR SCOTLAND WILL OPEN IN SUMMER 2024		A new fund to help realise and defend rights, and tackle issues affecting people’s daily lives. The Fund will focus on people whose rights are most at risk. It will support people to use human rights as a tool for change. The Fund is supported by a partnership of: AB Charitable Trust, The Baring Foundation, The Binks Trust, Cattanach, Corra Foundation, The Robertson Trust and William Grant Foundation. It is hosted by Corra Foundation. Three grants have been made in the first stage of the Fund’s work. These reflect a range of approaches to supporting people and communities to power social change and secure justice. They will offer valuable learning for everyone involved in helping turn rights into reality in Scotland. The three initial grants are: STARCATCHERS (£50,000 PROJECT FUNDING OVER TWO YEARS)  Starcatchers support the rights of babies and younger children. They have worked for 18 years, primarily in Wester Hailes and Fife, with a focus on: community engagement, productions, early years development, and advocacy. The funding will support them to build on research done in 2022. This will increase understanding and awareness of babies’ and children’s rights, how their views can inform decision-making, and opportunities for them to enjoy their rights. MAKING RIGHTS REAL (£75,000 CORE FUNDING OVER THREE YEARS)  Making Rights Real is a small grassroots human rights organisation in Scotland with a big vision – to support marginalised communities to use the power of human rights to mobilise for economic and social change. The funding will support work to increase human rights knowledge amongst groups whose rights are most at risk, and change made by duty bearers in response to community action. Making Rights Real anticipates improvements in Travellers’ sites, improved budget equality processes and access to healthcare for women

		and girls. The work will also contribute to movement building, funder and civil society knowledge exchange, and connections with academia. ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS CENTRE FOR SCOTLAND (£75,000 CORE FUNDING OVER THREE YEARS) Environmental Rights Centre for Scotland (ERCS)'s work is focussed on environmental rights and supporting people to fulfil these and protect the environment. ERCS does this in four main ways: awareness raising of rights and remedies and supporting participation in environmental decision-making; advice, assistance and representation to access justice and hold duty bearers to account; advocacy in policy and law reform; and strategic interest public litigation to tackle systemic environmental problems. The funding will enable development of activity across these four areas, in particular establishment of a new ERCS-owned law firm to undertake legal representations and function as a law centre. Beyond these initial grants, the next stage will see the Fund open to applications in the Summer. Decision making will be guided by people with a range of expertise, both lived and learned, on human rights. Please visit the Independent Human Rights Fund page or sign up to Corra's funding bulletin to receive updates.

NATIONAL LOTTERY COMMUNITY FUND -	Opens 27 March 2024	We want to involve more people in climate action. And we want to inspire bold and exciting change.

CLIMATE ACTION FUND - NEW FUNDING STREAM		From Wednesday 27 March 2024 you can apply for funding from the Climate Action Fund to help do this. We'll fund projects that reach more people by either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• linking climate action to the everyday lives and interests of local communities. And inspiring them to take action.</li> <li>• influencing communities at a regional or national level. Like linking up groups across locations. Or a campaign that inspires change across one country, or the whole UK.</li> </ul> You should be in a partnership with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a mix of organisations and sectors</li> <li>• smaller groups that represent the people you're working with.</li> </ul> You do not have to be a climate or environment-focused organisation to apply We want to reach people who are new to climate action by funding other types of organisations too. And by using people's everyday activities and interests as a starting point for climate action. The minimum you can ask for is £500,000. We expect to fund most projects for between £1 million and £1.5 million over 3 to 5 years. We may fund some exceptional projects up to £3 million, and for up to 7 years. We aim to fund up to 25 projects. For more information, you can attend one of our webinars: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Thursday 16 May 2024 – register for webinar (English and Welsh)</li> <li>• Tuesday 21 May 2024 - register for webinar (English)</li> </ul>
