HEALTHY PLANET, HEALTHY PEOPLE COMMUNITY-LED AWARD	5 Dec 2024, 12pm	'Healthy Planet, Healthy People': Community-led Awards are designed to support community-led research. The awards are available to cover eligible costs arising from a defined research project. Funding will be provided to support new and existing research projects that promote the health of individuals through fostering healthy environments and communities, and enabling access to healthy foods. The Williamson Trust and RSE are looking to award ten demonstrator pilot-scale projects led by community-based individuals or organisations, who would each receive an award amount of up to £5,000 to conduct a research project for up to 12 months.
NATIONAL LOTTERY COMMUNITY FUND COMMUNITY ACTION FUND FAIRER LIFE CHANCES FUND		The National Lottery Community Fund is opening two new funding programmes. Community Action and Fairer Life Chances will focus on helping communities to tackle poverty, disadvantage, and discrimination, and we'll ask groups to tell us how they will reach and support people facing these challenges. They will award bigger and longer grants and fund organisations of different sizes and levels of experience. They will also support many smaller organisations to apply for multi-year funding for the first time, allowing them to develop over a more sustained period. COMMUNITY ACTION FUND Awarding grants of between £20,001 and £250,000 for up to five years, Community Action will support projects that help communities of all shapes and sizes to come together around activities that matter to them, or which help communities to be environmentally sustainable. In a departure from our previous Scotland programmes, we are opening up our definition of community to include people who share an identity, interest or experience, as well as people living in the same place. We want to fund projects that bring communities together to improve wellbeing and develop positive relationships within those communities. And that encourage connection with other people and/or connection with the environment.

		It will support projects that are more open, inclusive and led by the people who will benefit from their activities and services. FAIRER LIFE CHANCES FUND Awarding grants of between £20,001 and £500,000 for up to five years, Fairer Life Chances will fund projects that support children, young people and families, or that help people to be healthier and have better access to support. We want to fund vulnerable or excluded communities and, in particular, those that find it hardest to access support. Please visit the Scotland page of our website to find out more about programme outcomes and priorities. A blog explaining what we want to see in a strong funding application will be available our Scotland blog site from tomorrow. Organisations wishing to apply should contact us for a conversation either by email at advicescotland@tnlcommunityfund.org.uk or call us on 0300 123 7110.
THE ROBERTSON TRUST INTRODUCING NURTURING RELATIONSHIPS	Friday 24 January 2025	As part of the phased reopening of the Robertson Trust funds, they are launching a time-limited open call for small and large grant applications under the theme Nurturing Relationships. Fund closes on Friday 24 January 2025. There will also be further opportunities to apply for funding under the theme of Nurturing Relationships later in the new financial year.
SHETLAND CHARITABLE TRUST - SMALL GRANTS SCHEME	Friday 24th January 2025	A fund offering grants of up to £5,000 for small community groups in Shetland has opened to applications for financial year 2025/26. In line with all SCT's grant aid, the Small Grant Scheme aims to support community based voluntary and charitable organisations to provide services and associated facilities that help individuals and the community to thrive. Awards can cover up to 90 per cent of a project's costs. The scheme is open to constituted community groups with a turnover of less than £100,000 a year. They need to demonstrate in their application that they support SCT's Quality of Life Goals: community wellbeing, individual wellbeing, everyone matters and generational fairness.

		The scheme is open to requests for help with running costs and buying equipment or adapting buildings. Applications for revenue funding can be for a minimum of one year but the trust will consider multi-year funding to a maximum of 5 years.

BANK OF SCOTLAND FOUNDATION		Bank of Scotland Foundation, has announced the launch of its new five-year strategy - "Building a Brighter Future for Scotland." The strategy aims to fund, support and champion small and local charities that work towards improving the quality of life for some of Scotland's most vulnerable people.

The first multi-year programme under the new strategy, Empower, will launch in early February, offering real security and certainty for charities. This programme will offer a three-year unrestricted grant of £150,000 (£50,000 per annum) and collaborating with Lloyds Banking Group, the Foundation also aims to identify opportunities to add strategic value for funded charities and help them grow stronger and thrive beyond the lifetime of their grant.

Two further multi-year programmes will be launched later in the year. Energise is a multi-year grants programme supporting small and local charities that are closest to the real issues facing our communities. Available to new (and more established) charities this programme offers a two-year unrestricted grant of £20,000 (£10,000 per annum), enabling charities to use their grants in the way that helps them best.

The third programme, Enable, is an innovative, joint grants programme with the Foundation's sole funder, Lloyds Banking Group, aimed at boosting community volunteering. Funding will be provided to charities to support projects delivered through volunteers, with Lloyds Banking Group's colleagues across Scotland volunteering their time and skills to help deliver the projects and support the charities. This programme offers a grant of £30,000 - £90,000 over three years (£10k-£30k per annum) for volunteering projects/costs/initiatives.

CASH FOR KIDS - COST OF LIVING GRANTS		Cash for Kids is supporting children and young people through the cost-of-living crisis, with £1.6 million available to support 32,200 children across the UK. In response to the crisis hitting so many families right now we've launched this new fund, to provide emergency essentials that support the physical and mental well-being of children who are struggling. These could include food, clothing and household energy costs, but we'll also consider anything that helps meet children's most basic needs. Grants are £50 per child per household, and we aim to get the funds to families as soon as possible.
CASH4CLUBS	Extended to 12 December 2024	Cash4Clubs is a small grants scheme set up in 2008 to support local sports clubs. Grants of £2,000 (€2,000 in Ireland) are available this autumn for community organisations working with adults from under-represented communities, delivering sport or physical activity for social purpose. The 2024 programme is exclusively focused on supporting adult clubs, with an emphasis on 18–25 year olds. The funding will be unrestricted but with an outcome of increasing participation, meaning clubs are able to decide how best to use the grant to engage more adults from their local communities. The funding comes from gambling company Flutter UKI, and Sported, the UK’s largest network of community sports groups. The unrestricted grant can be used for anything that will support your organisation to continue your activities and increase participation in your local community. Typical examples of costs might include a contribution towards:

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Venue hire</li> <li>• Utilities such as heating or lighting</li> <li>• Equipment</li> <li>• Coaching costs</li> <li>• Volunteer expenses</li> <li>• Kit</li> <li>• Marketing and communications</li> <li>• Training and qualifications</li> <li>• Insurances and affiliations</li> </ul> Not-for-profit organisations, including charities, community groups and traditional sports clubs. Applicants must be either registered charities or clubs with a structured governance and constitution. Groups must solely be delivering activities to adults (18+) to be eligible for funding. They will prioritise applications focused on 18-25 year olds. You cannot apply if your organisation or club runs junior activities. Applicants must demonstrate that they are using sport for a wider social purpose with a goal to increase participation of adults from under-represented groups. We are particularly interested in submissions from groups working in areas of high deprivation.

HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT SCOTLAND/ HERITAGE LOTTERY FUND	17 January 2025	Historic Environment Scotland (HES) launched Round 3 of its Heritage and Place Programme (H&amp;PP). This means that any eligible organisations who are interested in applying for funding to develop an area-based scheme are invited to submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) for HES to consider prior to being invited to submit a full application if they feel that your proposal meets with the programme criteria. The EOI deadline is 17 January 2025. For project Development Phase, HES can fund up to 50% of costs. For project Delivery Phase, HES can provide grants of between £750,000 - £1,500,000 depending on size of scheme and match funding. HES are working in collaboration with the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) to promote this programme as they also provide funding support for heritage place projects (Area schemes). Although HLF has its own funding programme with its own criteria and application processes, Grants for Heritage, this aligns strongly with the

		aims of the H&amp;PP. If you would like to find out more about applying for the HLF funding please contact scotlandcontact@heritagefund.org.uk. As part of this collaborative work, HES will be jointly hosting an online information session the details of which are set out below: Thursday 28 November 2024 (11.00-12.00/12.15) This session will provide attendees with an overview of the area- based funding available from both HES and HLF. HES will cover topics including its application processes and timeframes, eligibility criteria, funding priorities and examples of eligible projects and activities. HES will also look at what information they would expect to see in an EOI and at development phase application stage if an EOI is successful. There will also be an opportunity for Q&amp;A's at the end of the presentations. If you are interested in attending this session then please contact HES at grants@hes.scot to let them know and provide them with your contact name, job title, organisation and email address. Also, if you have a scheme in mind for which you are thinking about applying to the H&amp;PP and/ or 'Grants for Heritage' programme for then please also include the details of this. HES will then send you on a MS Teams meeting invitation for the session nearer this time. And finally, if after reading the Programme Guidance you have any other questions about the Heritage &amp; Place Programme, please e-mail grants@hes.scot.
